JOHN MORRISSEY'S LINGO. - Mack." the Cincinnati Commercial, writes that Mor rissey has won golden opinions for quiet and unobtrusive demeanor and urbanity of disposition since his accession to the House. It is thus he relates the story of his fight with Heenan: "Golly; how I did tremble when I was comsing to the secatch that time? Heenan was too big for a e, and thit worning I'd have given no 6 d No. 88, Duke street, Alexandria, a good deal to get out of the scrape. Still, I was made up my mind that as I had put up all my money—every cent I had into the thing I was roing in, and then, thought I, I'll be d-d if I don't whip him too. When I looked at Heenan stripped for the fight, Adthought Pd be whipped sure—then again I made up my mind to make him work for it. I eyed him all over as he sat in his corner. Good God, says I to myself, I can't do nothing with that fellow; but then again, I thought I must well, we came up to the first tound, When! I remember how he did plug me to Ltell you what it is, pluck, for it would be no use now that I am out of the ring but if I hadn't been pretty good game, I'd have caved in on that first round. After a long tussle we tell, and I was BURKE, HERBERT & CO., mightily glad of it. It was white mightily glad of it. At was while we were down to respect the state of this lime that I made up my mind I was going to whip him theenentried to choke me while we were on the ground. He got his hand on UNCURRENT MONEY, and this way (suiting the action to the GOLD AND SILVER COIN, and the best state of the GOLD AND SILVER COIN, and the country of the country o word). When I felt him do that, thinks I to myself, 'sonny, I've got you now.' I thought that a man who'd do that was a coward, and from that time to the end of the fight I felt Sight Drafts, Checks, and Time Collections. from that time to the end of the fight I felt sure of whipping him, and I would have whip-ped him, just as I did, if the fight had lasted just twice as long as it did. If Heenan had pluck equal to his strength, all hell couldn't whip him; but he bain't, and it's no work at all to whip him, it you can only stand under him for the first few minutes. 22

EDITING .- The world at large do not understand the mysteries of a newspaper; and as in a watch, the hands that are seen are but passive instruments of the spring, which is never seen, so, in a newspaper, the most worthy causes of its prosperity are often least observed or known. Who suspects the benefit which the paper derives from the enterprise, the vig ers? Who pauses to think how much of the pleasure of reading is derived from the skill and care of the printer. We see the blemishes of printing, if they exist, but seldom observe the excellencies.

of illow of the stook

We eat a hearty dinner, but do not think of the farmer that raises the material thereof, or the cook that prepared them with infinite pains and skill. But a cook of vegetables, meat pastries, and infinite bonbons has a paradisical office in comparison with an editor! Before him pass in review all the exchange newspapers. He is to know all their contents, to mark for other eyes the matter that requires attention. His scissors are to be alert, and clip with incessant industry all the little items that together form so large, an interest in the news department. He passes in review, each week, every State in the Union though the newspaper lens. He looks across the ocean and sees strange lands, and following the sun he searches all around the world for material. It will require but one second's time for the readers to take in what two hours' search produced. By him are read the manuscripts that swarm the office. It is his hand that condenses a whole page into a line.

And, in short, as the body depends upon a good digastion, so the health of a paper depends upon that vigorous digestion which goes on by means of the editor of galant H toyle ood Ought they not to be honored? And since STATIONERY. During the debate in the House of Representatives on the deficiency bbls West Virginia Petroleum Oil, decidedly bill the subject of allowance for stationery to members of Congress came up, when Mr. May nard, of Tennessee, proposed that all members of oil, Lard Oil, pure Sperm, Whale, Paraffine oil, 1 bbl of each—all warranted of the best should be allowed to draw whatever stationery to should be allowed to draw whatever stationery they needed. Mr. Stevens objected to this. -He said that plan had been tried and had to be changed because some members procured under the name of stationery pantaloons and shirts and shaving soap enough to last them for years. Some members had run up their account for stationery to nearly a thousand dollars. The conclusion that pantaloons and shirts and shaving soap are stationery, to which some of our sapient Congressman came, is about as sensible and honest as the conclusion they have come to that the negro should be made the superior of the white man. We think if Mr. Stevens had reflected upon the value of Mr. Maynard's would not have opposed it. A law that would jan 15 HOUGH & RAMSAY. are coming to Congress to furnish themselves CHAMPAGNE CIDER with pantaloons, shirts, stockings, and hoose with pantaloons, shirts, stockings and boots just received and for sale by under the head of stationery would be very weful to Mr. Stevens' colored friends and colleagues. We recommend Old Thad to recousider his action under this new point of view.

Wi Y's Herald to go and so so and a to the to the second and the second to the second "A FRIENDLY LEAD."—A boy was brought before a London police court for picking pockets. A policeman testified that when he searched the prisoher he found on him a flash card, of what is termed among thieves, a friendly lead, or a raffle to assist a fellow thief. It is somewhat curious:

Let us join our hands to help a friend, For all must to Dame Fortune bend; The mosto is to live and let live,

So let us be there and our mite give. "A friendly lead will be held on Friday, December 13, 1867, at the Wooden House, Redcross street, Borough, for the benefit of Robert Springs, better known as 'Young Snobby," who is in great distress. Music provided. To commence at eight o'clock. Chairman Johnny Top-boots."

It is not very long since we published a paragraph about art among English thieves. It would seem that they cultivate poetry, also.

MEDICAL. DALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL ESTABLISHED AS A REFUGE FROM QUACKERY. THE ONLY PLACE WHERE A CURE

CAN BE OBTAINED. DR. JOHNSON has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, and on'y Effectual Remedy in the World for Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, No e, or Skin, Affections of the Liver Lungs, Stomach, or Bowels-those Territle Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth-secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible. YOUNG MEN,

Especially, who have become the victime of so itary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweets to an utim .y grave thousands of Young Mon of the most excellent taients and brilliant in elect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Jona tors with the thunders of enquence, or waked to estacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE. Married Persons, or Young Men countempla-ting marriage, being aware of Physical Weakness, Organic Debility, Deformities, speedily cured.

He who places himself under the care of Dr.

J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician, ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distra-sing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropri ty .-Young persons are too apt to commit ex. cesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost soon r by those falling int , improper habit; than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy off-pring, the most serieus and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dy-pepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Dobility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and alsowhere, has effected some of the most astenishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, socie ty or marriage: These are some of the sad and melanchaly effects produced by early habits of youth viz

Weakness of the Back and Limbs Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Neryous Irritabl ity, Derangement of the Digestive Functions General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c MENTALLY.—The fearful effe is on the mind are much to be dreaded. Lose of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil

Forebodings, Averson to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emac ated, having a singular appear ance about the eyes, Cough, and Sympt ms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN, Who have injured themselves by a cortain practice, indulged in, a liabit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain sceret habit. Such persons must, before contem-reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happine-s Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prosp ct hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcorated sore throat, diseased dimness of sight deafness, nodes on the shinbones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiss ration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from weence no traveller returns." It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretender: w 10, by the use of that DEADLY POISON, Mr R.
